Places of worship have been destroyed. Khartoum Cathedral was looted and taken over by the militia. The Archbishop led 42 staff and their families to safety.

A large, colorful cross is the central focus, constructed from various geometric paper scraps in shades of blue, green, yellow, pink, and red. It is set against a textured, brownish-gold background. Below the cross, there are faint, stylized Arabic calligraphic elements in white and light pink. The overall composition is artistic and symbolic.
