Any member may call the attention of the Chair presiding to the absence of a quorum at any time before the question is put on a motion or amendment. General Rules of Debate

Order of speeches

32. The Chair presiding shall call upon members who desire to speak and may require them to give their names to the Secretary. He/she shall also determine the order in which they speak.

Breach of order

33. The Chair presiding shall call a member to order for failure to address the Chair, irrelevance, tedious repetition of arguments previously put forward by the same or any other member, unbecoming language, reading a speech without permission of the Chair presiding, disregard of the authority of the Chair presiding, or any other breach of order, and may order the member to end any speech which he or she is making.

Points of order

34. A member may call the Chair’s attention to a breach of order under Rule 33 at any time and for this purpose may interrupt another speaker. A member rising to do this shall say “Point of Order” and shall then state what the member has to say in the form of a succinct question.

Personal explanations

35. A member may ask the Chair’s permission to interrupt a debate to make a personal explanation but only so as to correct an important misunderstanding of fact during the debate with regard to what the member has said, or to explain some matter of strictly personal concern, and for this purpose may interrupt another speaker by saying “Point of Explanation” and then asking this permission. Such permission shall be given only if any person interrupted consents and if in the opinion of the Chair the debate is likely to benefit from such an explanation.

Interruptions otherwise not permitted

36. Save as provided in Rule 34 and 35 the interruption of a speech shall not be permitted. Where it occurs in breach of this Rule it shall be reckoned as a speech on the question before the Synod and shall preclude the interrupter from speaking further on that question. The ruling of the Chair on a point of order or the admissibility of a personal explanation shall not be open to question.
Speaking to a motion
37. A member shall not speak unless upon a motion or amendment save as provided in Rule 34, 35 and 58 requests for separate voting.

38. A member may speak only once on a question before the Synod (whether the question is a motion or an amendment) except :-
   (i) By permission of the Chair presiding and with the consent of the Synod;
   (ii) The mover of a motion (but not an amendment) may reply; such reply shall not introduce any new matter and shall close the debate;
   (iii) as provided in Rules 34 and 35 (points of order and personal explanations).

For the avoidance of doubt, a motion and each amendment to a motion are deemed to be separate questions.

Speaking to the chair
39. Every speech shall be addressed to the Chair and shall be succinct and relevant to the matter under debate.

Length of speeches – Limitation by Chair
40. The Chair may also determine without moving a motion that speeches shall be limited to a specified number of minutes, provided that if any member objects, the Chair shall put the proposed speech limit as a motion. The Chair may at his or her discretion allow a longer time to the member (if any) who has a right of reply on the question under discussion.

Length of speeches – Limitation by motion
41. Any member may, before or after any speech, move "that all (further) speeches on this question be limited to a specified number of minutes", and if the Chair thinks that such limitation is desirable for the better transaction of the Synod's business she or he shall forthwith put the motion.

Special powers of Chair
42. Unless the Synod otherwise provides, the Chair shall:
   (i) adjourn the Synod at the hours fixed in accordance with these Rules;
   (ii) adjourn the debate on any question at the hour fixed for the commencement of other business in accordance with Rule 21;
   (iii) close the debate on any motion at the hour appointed in accordance with Rule 21 whether or not there are other members who still desire to speak, and thereupon the provisions of Rule 70 (the closure) shall apply.
Moving motions or amendments
43. Every matter debated in the Synod shall have been moved by a member. If the member, who gave notice of a motion or amendment, on his/her name being called chooses not to move it another member may do so in his/her stead.

When amendments are permitted
44. Except as provided in Rule 45, any member may move an amendment to a motion, which has been duly moved, and such amendment shall be disposed of before that motion is put or any further amendment is moved.

When amendments are not permitted
45. Amendments to the following shall not be permitted:
   (i) A procedural motion under Rule 61;
   (ii) A motion to receive the report of a committee;
   (iii) A motion under Rule 77(i) in reply to any question referred by the Diocesan Synod.

Amendments to amendments
46. No amendment may be moved to an amendment except by permission of the Chair.

Content of amendments
47. An amendment shall be relevant to and shall not have the effect of reversing the main motion or amendment.

Delivery in writing
48. Before an amendment is moved, a copy thereof in writing shall be delivered to the Secretary to the Synod, unless this requirement is dispensed with by the Chair.

Form of amendments
49. An amendment may be made:-
   (i) by leaving out words; or
   (ii) by leaving out words in order to insert other words; and/or
   (iii) by inserting or adding words.

Order of consideration
50. Amendments shall be moved and put to the vote in the order in which they first affect the main motion to which they relate, and if more than one amendment has been received affecting the same place in that motion or amendment, they shall be moved and put to the vote in the order determined by the Chair presiding. By his/her permission, during the debate on an amendment, other amendments may be discussed but not moved.

Withdrawal of motions or amendments
51. A motion or amendment, once moved, may be withdrawn by the mover or at his or her request, with the consent of the Synod.

Reconsideration and rescission
52. No motion or amendment to the same effect as, or dependent upon, one which has been rejected within the preceding twelve months and no motion to rescind a resolution passed within the same period shall be proposed without the agreement of the Standing Committee or the consent of the Synod.

Division
53. The Chair presiding may, with the consent of the mover, divide any motion or amendment in such manner as to enable the Synod to express its judgement separately upon each part of the motion or amendment so divided.

Voting

Procedure for decisions
54. Questions relating only to the conduct of business shall be decided by the votes of all the members of the Deanery Synod present and voting, and every other question shall be decided in like manner, the assent of both Houses being presumed.

Voting by Houses
55. A separate vote of each House shall be taken if:

(i) The Chair presiding requires;
(ii) Any five members require;
(iii) The matter has been referred by Diocesan Synod.

The voting on a vote by Houses shall be recorded in the minutes.

Majority required for decisions
56. Decisions of the Synod when no separate vote is taken by each House shall require the votes of a majority of all the members of the Synod present and voting, subject to any statutory requirements. Decisions of the Synod when a separate vote is taken by each House shall require the votes of a majority of all the members of each House present and voting.
Mode of voting
57. The Chair presiding on putting any question to the vote shall take a show of hands, the result of which as announced by him/her shall be conclusive, and may at his/her discretion order the hands to be counted. A vote by Houses shall always be counted and recorded in the minutes.

Requests for separate voting by Houses
58. Where any members request a separate vote of each House such a request shall be made before the question is put or immediately upon the announcement of a show of hands, whether counted or not.

Voting rights of the Chair
59. The Chair shall have the same voting rights as other members and shall have no second or casting vote. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby specified that in the case of an equality of votes, the motion shall be deemed lost.

Interrupting Business

Procedural motions
60. A procedural motion mentioned in these Rules may be moved without notice, unless express provision is made to the contrary.

Content of procedural motions
61. Subject to these Rules, the following procedural motions may, with the consent of the Chair presiding, be moved with or without notice but not so as to interrupt the speech of any member:

(i) "That the Synod do pass to the next business" or "That the Synod do pass to the next business before the question is put" ("next business");
(ii) "That the Synod do now adjourn" ("adjournment of the Synod");
(iii) "That the debate be now adjourned" ("adjournment of debate");
(iv) "That the debate be now closed" ("closure");
(v) "That the matter under discussion be referred back" ("refer back");
(vi) "That all further speeches on this question be limited" ("speech limit");
(vii) A motion to vary the order of business;
(viii) A motion to suspend a Rule.
When not permitted

62. A procedural motion shall not be moved:

(i) For next business, the closure or reference back on any question referred by the Diocesan or General Synod;

(ii) For next business on an amendment or another procedural motion.

Suspension of Rule

63. After notice or, by permission of the Chair, without notice a member may move that a Rule be suspended during a particular debate or meeting. Such motions shall not be deemed to have been carried unless a majority of those members present and voting are in favour.

Limit of speeches for procedural motions

64. The debate shall be limited to a brief speech by the proposer of not more than two minutes and, unless the Chair presiding permits further speeches, a brief reply by the mover of the original motion or, failing him/her, one other member.

Amendments and other procedural motions

65. The adjournment or closure may be moved on an amendment or another procedural motion but a motion to pass to the next business or to refer back shall not be so moved.

Effect of procedural resolutions

66. In the event of any procedural motion being passed, the debate to which it relates shall be closed or stand adjourned, as the case may be, except that in the case of a motion that the debate on a motion be closed the mover thereof shall have a right to reply before the matter is put to the vote.

Adjourning amendments

67. The adjournment of an amendment shall be deemed to adjourn the debate on the original motion.

Resumption of business interrupted

68. Unless otherwise resolved, business interrupted by an adjournment of the Synod shall be resumed at the next meeting, and on an adjournment of debate, if and when the Standing Committee so decides.

Reference back

69. If a motion to remit specifies no one to whom the matter is to be referred, this question shall be decided by the Standing Committee.
The closure
70. The following rules of debate shall apply:
   (i) If such motion is permitted by the Chair presiding, it shall be put forthwith without discussion.
   (ii) If the closure is carried, the member, if any, who has a right of reply on a motion superseded by the closure shall be given an opportunity to speak for not more than two minutes in reply, and the motion or amendment shall be put without further debate.

Next business
71. The following rules of debate shall apply:
   (i) A motion for next business shall take precedence over all amendments of which notice has been given.
   (ii) If such motion is carried, the original motion shall lapse either forthwith or before the question is put, as the case may be, and not be reconsidered during the same meeting of the Synod.
   (iii) If such motion fails, it shall not be moved again on the original motion unless that motion be substantially amended.
   (iv) During discussion on a motion "That the Synod do pass to the next business before the question is put" it shall not be in order to debate the merits of the original question.

Adjournment of the Synod
72. The following rules of debate shall apply:
   (i) The motion to adjourn may, but need not, specify a time for the next sitting of the Synod or the resumption of the business interrupted.
   (ii) If the motion to adjourn is carried and the Synod has not by the same resolution appointed a time for its next sitting, such sitting shall be held at the time appointed in accordance with Rule 68.
   (iii) If the motion fails, the adjournment of the Synod shall not be moved again, except by permission of the Chair, until a further hour has elapsed.

Meeting in separate Houses

When and where held
73. Each house shall meet separately when:
   (i) It is required so to do under these Rules;
(ii)  It has so decided in accordance with its own rules;

(iii) The Chair of the House has so directed, or

(iv)  The Synod has so directed and subject to any directions by the Synod or the House concerned, the date, time and place of any separate meeting shall be fixed by the Chair of that meeting. The procedures of each House shall be governed, with necessary changes, by the rules of the Synod, subject to such further rules not inconsistent therewith as each House may from time to time decide.

References by the Diocesan Synod

When considered

74. References by the Diocesan Synod shall be included in the agenda of such meeting as the Standing Committee shall consider appropriate.

Prior notice and documents required

75. Unless the Standing Committee decide to the contrary for any reason:

(i)  At least 28 days’ notice of any matter referred shall be given to every member; and

(ii)  A report or other document prepared by or on behalf of either the General Synod, Diocesan Synod or the Standing Committee of the Diocesan Synod shall be circulated.

Consultations within the parishes

76. Subject to any timetable laid down by the Diocesan Synod, the Deanery Synod before voting on a reference may refer any question to all of the Parochial Church Councils in the Deanery.

Procedure of debate

77.

(i)  When the reference by the Diocesan Synod is in the form of a question requiring the answer Yes or No, the question shall be put to the Deanery Synod as a formal motion in the affirmative sense. No amendment shall be in order and a separate vote of each House shall be taken under Rule 55. If the motion is defeated, the question shall be decided in the negative.

(ii) When the reference invites a fuller statement of opinion, a motion containing a draft of such statement shall be moved on behalf of the Standing Committee and amendments to such a motion shall be in order.

(iii) When all motions under the foregoing paragraphs (i) and (ii) have been decided, other motions arising therefrom may, if otherwise in order, be moved by any member.
Report on result

78. The decisions on such motions and on any related motions not specifically included in the reference, shall be reported by the Secretary of the Deanery Synod to the Secretary of the Diocesan Synod. The number of votes cast in each House shall be included in the report.

Matters raised by Parochial Church Councils

79. Any Parochial Church Council in the Deanery may, on a motion moved by a member representing that parish, bring before the Deanery Synod any matter either of general Church interest or affecting that parish and may move a motion that (if the Deanery Synod agrees) an identified representative of the Deanery Synod on the Diocesan Synod be instructed to bring such matter before the Diocesan Synod on behalf of the Deanery Synod.

(ii) a statement showing the estimated expenditure of the Synod during the next financial year;
(iii) proposals for raising the income required to meet such expenditure.

General provisions

Admission of press and public

81. Subject to any directions by the Synod or the Standing Committee, any member of the Synod may move that the representatives of the press and members of the public shall withdraw during the whole or part of the business before the Synod. If the motion is carried, the Chair presiding shall request the representatives of the press and the public to withdraw.

The Standing Committee

There shall be a Standing Committee of the Synod consisting of the Joint Chairs, the Secretary (if a member of the Synod), Treasurer and not less than four persons elected by the members of each House in equal numbers from among their members. This committee shall have no power to co-opt additional members. The Secretary of the Deanery Synod shall be Secretary of the Standing Committee.
Elected members of the Standing Committee
83. Elected members shall retire on the election of their successors or on ceasing to be qualified. Elections shall be triennial and immediately after elections to the Synod. Voting shall be by Houses and procedure otherwise the same, with essential modifications, as for elections at an Annual Parochial Church Meeting but so that the outgoing Standing Committee shall make no nominations.

Functions of the Standing Committee
