

NOVEMBER 2018

4/11/18 Pray for those in prison in Sudan and for those who find it hard to get information about family members who have been arrested for any reason. Pray and give thanks for those Sudanese Christians who visit prisons, often giving generously of their time to bring hope and comfort.

11/11/18 Continue to pray for Bible translation work in Sudan. Please think particularly of the predominantly Christian Laru people of the Nuba Mountains region. Their language is known as Laru or Laro. Pray for the publication of a Laru New Testament, for the health of the translation team and for their families.

18/11/18 Pray for displaced people throughout Sudan, for the poor and homeless, for those unable to find work. Pray for the work of the churches and those of all faiths who work for justice and peace.

25/11/18 A young Christian woman in Khartoum says, "Although I grew up with no parents, I always knew Jesus was with me." She speaks with pride of her faith and leads projects to help women and children. Her story is in the recent leaflet produced by our Sudan group, headed "Together in faith we can...". Pray for that young woman and that the leaflet is widely taken up and leads to more understanding and commitment to being part of the whole family of God.
