School Adviser: Primary Leadership

Come and join us
Dear Colleague,

Thank you for showing an interest in our vacancy. Have you been considering your next step from headship? Do you still have the drive and desire to provide the best for young people and to make a difference to their lives?

We are looking to appoint an experienced and successful primary headteacher to join our highly effective team of advisers. As a team, we provide support and challenge to school leaders, promoting educational excellence in our family of 240 church schools and academies.

This is an exciting time to join our team. We are delighted to say that our positive reputation is growing across the region and as a result our portfolio of schools grows year on year. Our service is growing too, we provide an increasing repertoire of training and additional services in response to requests from schools.

As well as a proven track record in primary church school leadership, we are looking for somebody who is keen to develop professionally and willing to contribute fully to the wider work of our team. We work openly and collaboratively in a culture of mutual support.

All of our advisers were successful church school headteachers and so we know what it is to take the leap. We hope that you find the information in this pack useful. Please feel free to contact us if you want more information or have any questions.

With every blessing,

Canon Richard Noake
Diocesan Director of Education

Simone Bennett
Diocesan Deputy Director of Education
About Us

The Diocese of Leeds

The Diocese of Leeds is geographically the largest diocese in the country. It covers the whole of West Yorkshire, the western part of North Yorkshire, and small parts of South Yorkshire, Lancashire, and County Durham. The diocese has 240 schools and the Education Team work in partnership with nine local authorities and eleven multi-academy trusts.

Diocese of Leeds Board of Education - Our Vision for Education

The Diocesan Board of Education plays a vital role in helping to fulfil the vision of the Diocese of Leeds: Loving, Living, Learning. Everything we do is also shaped by the Church of England's Vision for Education: Deeply Christian, Serving the Common Good. Called by God, we aim to nurture Christian hope and high expectations in everyone who is involved in education across our Diocese.

Our ambitions:
- To inspire children, young people and adults with Jesus' promise of “life in all its fullness” (John 10.10).
- To support those who work in schools, colleges and universities in nurturing the whole human person, through encouraging spiritual, intellectual, emotional, physical, moral and social development.
- To offer a deeply Christian vision of human flourishing for all in which schools and other institutions serve the common good, setting high expectations of achievement within a holistic and whole-life framework.

Our priorities:
- Loving – To respect and encourage each individual as a person wonderfully created in the image of God and deeply loved by God.
- Living – To offer an example of living the Gospel in each learning community, inspired by God's love for us and our love for one another.
- Learning – To serve our whole community by offering the highest quality learning experience to students of all ages, promoting wisdom, knowledge and skills.
About the role

The principal tasks will include working with and reporting to the Director and Deputy Director of Education to:

- Take a lead role in creating, implementing and sustaining significant aspects of Church school development, improvement and effectiveness.
- Hold a portfolio of Church of England Schools / Academies, building strong professional relationships with them to enhance and enrich the distinctive learning opportunities for all.
- Contribute and bring expertise to the Diocesan Education Team including supporting, planning and delivery of its distinctive professional development and training.
- Respond to diocesan, local, regional and national educational strategy and initiatives, under the direction of the Director of Education.

The post will offer opportunities for professional development and the post holder will be encouraged to take a leading role in the formulation and delivery of Diocesan education policy and practice.

Our team is based in Church House, modern offices in the centre of Leeds. However much of your work will be based from home and regular, extensive travel across the Diocese is an expectation.
Hours

This post is full time (35 hours per week) but mimics the work of school leaders in the way it will ebb and flow across the school year. There will be a requirement to work some evenings. Holiday entitlement includes 30 days’ annual leave plus bank holidays, plus four customary days a year (between Christmas and New Year).

Salary

A competitive package includes a competitive annual salary of £52,990, reimbursement of car and travelling expenses, an 8% non-contributory pension with up to an additional 5% matched contributions.

The Diocese of Leeds is proud to be a Living Wage Employer

Safeguarding

An Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check is required.

Equal Opportunities

Leeds Diocesan Board of Finance (The Board) is committed to providing equal opportunities in employment and the workplace and in avoiding unlawful discrimination. Accordingly, the Board will ensure that recruitment and selection, training and development, and promotion procedures result in no job applicant or employee receiving less favourable treatment on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, class or caste, religious belief or lack of religious belief (unless this is an occupational requirement), disability, trade union membership or non-membership, gender or sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, responsibility for dependents or being a part-time or fixed-term worker. The Board’s objective is to ensure that individuals are selected, promoted and otherwise treated solely on the basis of their relevant aptitudes, skills and abilities.

PURPOSE OF POST

As an officer of the Diocesan Board of Education (DBE), to deliver statutory and income-generating support, advice and guidance to diocesan Church schools.

The work of the DBE is influenced by the Church of England’s vision for education, to build and promote educational excellence and relationships across our family of schools and parishes, enabling all pupils and adults to flourish and experience ‘life in all its fullness’ (John 10:10)

Your work will also contribute to the furtherance of the Diocesan Strategy to support confident Christians, grow churches and help transform all communities, underpinned by the values of loving, living and learning.
KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Working with and reporting to the Director and Deputy Director of Education to:

- Be a named adviser for a portfolio of Church schools across the whole geography of the diocese supporting leaders, including through coaching, mentoring and challenge, to deliver highly effective and distinctive education;
- Make a significant contribution to the pastoral support of leaders including headteachers, principals and chairs of governors;
- Assess and evaluate, alongside senior Church school leaders, the effectiveness of the school and contribute to the establishment of appropriate school development and improvement plans, responding where appropriate to Ofsted and SIAMS inspections and/or Local Authority / DfE review;
- Work to highlight potential areas of outstanding practice or concern in Church schools in regards to key SIAMS areas and to broker support, where needed, from the Deputy Director(s) and School Adviser colleagues;
- Identify and broker school development and improvement support for Church schools from strategic partners including: NLEs, SLEs, Teaching School Alliances and Multi-Academy Trusts;
- Contribute to the Service Plan for Church schools including income generation and the delivery of bespoke services;
- Contribute to other aspects of Church school development and improvement as directed by the Director and Deputy Director(s) to enhance educational excellence, including planning and leading a range of training;
- Contribute to recruitment processes for the appointment of Church school leaders;
- Contribute knowledge and understanding of pedagogy, curriculum development and assessment practice for specific phases or areas e.g. Early Years and Primary / RE / Developing Spirituality, and to add to the capacity of the Education Team;
- Contribute to the Diocesan Board of Education strategy and have delegated responsibility for one or more areas of the work of the Team;
- Attend by invitation, support and contribute to the work of the Diocesan Board of Education and its sub-groups;
- Confidently contribute to the mission and ministry strategy of the Diocese to transform communities through promoting Church school and parish links, clergy training and the wider work with children and young people;
- Work closely with external partners and stakeholders e.g. Local Authority, DfE, Teaching School leads, and the Church of England Education Office to ensure all engagement with Church schools is both appropriate and professionally delivered;
- Attend regional and national conferences and training events as directed by the Director of Education.
- To lead on an aspect of the teams’ work as designated by the director/deputy director of education.

This job description provides a guide to the duties and responsibilities of the post and is not an exhaustive list. The post holder may be asked to undertake any other relevant duties and responsibilities appropriate and commensurate to the post.
